

Dan Falconer has been an ACI Managing Director, Engineering, since 1998, and has been closely involved with ACI Committee 318 leadership over several editions of the Code. He received a B.S. in Civil Engineering, from the University of Buffalo, and an M.S. in Structural Engineering from Lehigh University. He has many years of experience with design and construction in the commercial building industry.